

Managing an Allegation

Allegations can be made about any person, from anyone and in any situation and, if or when these occur, this can be stressful and upsetting for many people, whether the allegation is proven to be true or false.

This Managing an Allegation short training course goes beyond child protection and safeguarding training and considers how allegations can be made and how they need to be dealt with in line with best working practices.

This managing an allegations training course has been written by the qualified childcare professionals is.

Course covers:

- Learning Objective & Introduction
- The Allegation
- Keeping Safe
- Digital World
- End of Course Exam

Duration:
1-2 hours

Valid for:
1 year from date course completed

Certificated:
X